

COMMUNITY FOOD SUPPORT

There are many organisations in our borough working to make healthy, delicious and nutritious food available to everyone in Kingston!

THE GOOD FOOD GROUP

Kingston Voluntary Action leads local initiatives that bring together charities, community groups, and businesses to tackle food insecurity and build a stronger, more inclusive food support network across the borough.

KVA'S SURPLUS TO SUPPER HUB

KVA's Surplus to Supper Hub is a community-led project in Kingston that reduces food waste by collecting surplus food from local sources and redistributing it efficiently to various organisations, who support our communities to access healthy and nutritious food.

VOLUNTEERS NEEDED!

KVA's Surplus to Supper Hub

Are you passionate about reducing food waste and helping your community?

Join our team based at The Malden Centre, volunteer and make a difference!

We're looking for enthusiastic volunteers to support our Hub in a variety of hands on roles:

- Hub volunteer: Help load and unload crates of surplus, organise and store incoming donations, help with cleaning, and day-to-day tasks.
- Drivers: Collect and deliver surplus food (requires a valid license).
- Driver Buddies: Support drivers with navigation and loading.

Why volunteer?

- Make an Impact: Your time and effort will help provide nutritious food to families, schools, shelters, and community groups in need.
- Personal Growth: Volunteering is a great way to develop new skills, meet like-minded people, and gain a sense of fulfilment.
- Community Spirit: By volunteering, you contribute to a stronger, more connected community. Your involvement helps foster a culture of giving and support.
